

Florian Stoll (M.A.) works about development theory, social structure and globalization with Brazil as his regional focus.

In February 2011 Florian submitted his doctoral thesis on „Forms of temporal habitus in Recife, Brazil“. His thesis describes the social structure, living conditions and forms of planning in the social milieus of contemporary urban Brazil.

Areas of Focus:

- Sociology of Development
- Social Structure
- Globalization
- Brazil / Latin America
- Social Inequality
- Gender and Body Studies
- Sociology of Pierre Bourdieu
- Critical Theory

Contact: stollflorian@gmail.com